

A NIGHT WITH CARL FOGARTY

February 5, 2010

Carl 'Foggy' Fogarty is the most successful World Superbike racer of all time in terms of the number of championships and number of race wins. Now retired, he is renowned for his high corner speed riding style, combined with an aggressive competitiveness which netted him 59 victories and four World Superbike Championships (1994, 1995, 1998 and 1999). His greatest success came with the factory Ducati Team.

We would like to welcome Carl to the upcoming event and look forward to the visit from a legend such as himself.

Also attending the event, we welcome journalist and broadcaster Julian Ryder. Motorcycle racing has been at the centre of Julian's life since he first saw scrambling in black and white on the BBC's Grandstand in the early 1960s. After graduating, he worked in the trade and technical press for six years before persuading someone to give him a job on a motorcycle magazine. That was in 1980 and from then on Julian has been a motorcycle journalist. he will also be the events Compere.
