Last few tickets left for motorcycle event

Tickets are still available for a charity fundraiser in Shropshire, starring some of the world best known motorcycle legends.

The Road Racing Legends event will be held at Oswestry's Wynnstay Hotel on February 15.

Guests of honour will include Maria Costello and John McGuinness, the King and Queen of the Isle of Man TT race, as well as stars of today including Holland's Mats Nilsson.

One of the organisers, Phil Morris, said only a few tickets were left.

Guests will include Percy Tait and Tony Jefferies, Triumph Riders from the 70s, and Tom Dickie, the first man to ride the famous "Slippery Sam" 1970 750cc bike. The compere will be Bill Smith, the winner of four TT races.

Trustees Colin and Sue Morris and Phil and Gwen Morris said that people had donated lots of motorcycle memorabilia and local businesses had given excellent raffle prizes. Tickets, priced at £15, are available on (01691) 662082 or (01588) 672426.
