

135 January/February 2009
£3.75

Charity gig not to miss

Hard working charity fundraising team Phil and Gwen Morris and Colin and Sue Morris have a date for their annual Road Racing Legends evening, which takes place at the Wynnstay Hotel, Oswestry.

If you've not attended a RRL evening yet then 20 February 2009 is a date to get in the diary, as next year's extravaganza is one not to miss for real road race fans. Topping the bill are Irish aces Phil McCallen, William and Michael Dunlop, and Alan Patterson, with Classic Racers own Tommy Robb as MC. But the celebrity panel are only part of the picture, with the audience packed with stars.

Already confirmed to attend are John McGuinness, Guy Martin, James Witham, Keith Heckles, Tony Rutter,

Tom Dickie, Bill Smith, Frank Perris, Mark Parrot, Nick Jefferies, Maria Costello, Peggy Doran and yours truly. The evening kicks off with an auction of racing memorabilia from 4pm through to 6pm

The 2009 chosen charity is the Robert Dunlop Memorial Fund. Tickets, priced at £15 and limited to 350, are sold on a first come, first served basis and are available from Gwen on 01691 662082 or Sue on 01588 672426. By post the team can be contacted at Road Racing Legends Charity, Cherry Tree Cottage, Station Road Whittington, Oswestry, Shropshire SY11 4BT. Cheques should be made payable to Road Racing Legends, and please enclose a sae.