Motorcycle legends head for county

A new charity which aims to bring legends of the motorcycle world to Shropshire is set to hold its first event next month.

Two enthusiasts, Phil Morris, of Oswestry, and Colin Morris, of Craven Arms, recently set up Road Racing Legends, which will raise funds for local causes as well as national organisations that help victims of accidents in motorcycle races.

Tickets are now on sale for the first event, which is due to take place on February 15 at The Wynnstay Hotel in Oswestry at 7.30pm for 8pm.

The speakers will be six times British champion James Whitham, who is also a BBC and Sky Sports commentator, and five times British champion Mick Grant.

Phil Morris, a retired director of Morris Holdings, said he was in touch with a number of past and present well-known riders, and decided it would be good to hold fundraising events in Shropshire.

He said: "Tickets are still available and there has been a lot of interest. It has been brilliant so far.

"We have had a lot of donations given towards the memorabilia auction from past riders."

The money raised will go to Hope House Hospice and the Isle of Man Helicopter Fund. Tickets are available on (01588) 672 426 or (01691) 662 082.
