Biking legends roar in

A MOTORBIKE enthusiast has formed his own charity which is bringing legends of the racing world to Oswestry.

The first 'meet' organised by businessman Phil Morris under the charity Road Racing Legends banner brings five times British champion Mike Grant and six times British champion James Whitham to the Wynnstay Hotel in Oswestry on February 15.

The evening is being compered by Charlie Williams, a nine times TT winner.

Tickets are priced at £10 with the proceeds being divided between a local charity and the Isle of Man Helicopter Fund.

John McGuinness and Jim Moody have also confirmed they will be guest speakers at a date to be confirmed in 2007.

Tickets are available from January 2 from Gwen Morris on 01691 662082 or Susan Morris on 01588 672426.
