Charity's plea for a volunteer

A Shropshire charity is appealing for a volunteer to help out with secretarial work.

Road Racing Legends, which holds an annual event in Oswestry with big names from the world of motorcycling, is looking for someone to donate some of their time to write letters and make phone calls, assisted by the trustees.

Anyone who would like to help should e-mail Phil Morris at phil@roadracinglegends.org
