

BIG THANKS FROM STUART MILLS

PRESS

Phil, I cannot find enough words to describe how much you and Colin have done for me. I managed to hold back the tears for a few minutes after you left, but then they came, You, Colin and your wives are wonderful people who are utterly selfless in what you do.

Please pass on my thanks to John McGuinness, Ian Hutchinson and Guy Martin for taking the time out to sign the paintings, and also to the artists who did them.

I cannot express how much I appreciate what you have done for me, lifting me up from a pretty bad place to a point where I am determined to get out of here in order to give something back. There will be a minimum of twenty Brummies at next year's function in Oswestry and I will do more for you, I promise.

Thank you all so much.

Stuart Mills
