Big Thanks to Road Racing Legends

PRESS

Dear Colin and Sue

Thank you so much for going to all the extra trouble this week when you must have had your hands full with the organisation of the dinner last night.

Would you also convey thanks again to both John and Jamie for sparing their time and energy in being so sociable with the patients (and staff) today.

I have done some googling since and now realise what company I was in!

I spoke to them both after you had left and they were well made up with the visit,

So thank you again,
Jane Watson
